

JHF delivered a lecture for the delegates from National Construction Authority, Republic of Kenya

An officer of Japan Housing Finance Agency (“JHF”) delivered a lecture on housing finance system in Japan for the delegates from National Construction Authority (“NCA”), Republic of Kenya on August 27, 2019 in Tokyo, Japan.

During the lecture, the officer of JHF and the officials of NCA discussed about quality housing promotion through housing finance system, underwriting criteria, risk management, the current status of the housing finance market in the developing countries, support of the Japanese construction entities and other related topics.

