

JHF was invited to speak on green housing finance in Prague, Czech

Officer of Japan Housing Finance Agency (“JHF”) was invited to the XIXth European Congress of the EFBS (European Federation of Building Societies) in Prague on 17 and 18 October 2019 and delivered a presentation at the Session 3: “Cooperative, green and affordable housing: the future of living?”

Photographs by Ms. Claudia Günther

The officer explained the innovative activities of JHF relating to green housing finance both on the asset side and liability side. Japanese experiences under low interest rate environment also attracted a lot of attention due to similarities of financial market conditions both in Japan and Europe.

The agenda of the congress was “Housing finance: addressing regulation, low interest rates, and digitization.”